Grammar – Lesson 5 (Enhancing Accuracy)
Proofreading 2 · 60 minutes · Lesson 2 of 3 before the mock

Level 2: Simple sentences are well formed.

Level 3: Simple sentences, and some complex sentences are well formed.

Level 4: A range of sentence structures is used accurately and appropriately; errors do not affect overall clarity.

PART 1: THE TASK

You have interviewed a past student who left a well-paid job as a doctor to follow a lifelong dream. Write an article about this past student for the school magazine.

Write an introduction to the article (approx. 75 words).

15 minutes, silent, pens only. No notes, no dictionaries, no talking.

Level 3 group: also include ONE complex sentence and put a star beside it.

STOP when the time is up. This paragraph is not marked.

PART 2: THE MOST COMMON TYPES OF ERRORS

Code	What it covers	Example
S	Sentence boundary: no verb, no subject, two sentences joined by a comma, a fragment	Her work as a nurse was tiring, she never complained.
V	Verb: ending, tense, missing ‘be’, subject-verb agreement	No one is surprised when a doctor work at weekends.
W	Word form: right word, wrong form	The patient was very worrying about the operation.
N	Noun and article	It was a honour to interview such a dedicated doctor.

PART 3: PRACTICE SENTENCES (8 MINUTES)

Five sentences. Some contain errors; some are already correct. Identify the errors, correct them, and write the code.

1. The patient was very worrying about the operation.
2. Dr Lee left the hospital in 2020, he opened a clinic in Wan Chai.
3. Working twelve hours every day, she never missed a shift.
4. No one is surprised when a doctor work at weekends.
5. It was a honour to interview such a dedicated doctor.

PART 4: THE 8-ERROR HUNT (8 MINUTES)

Read the introduction below. Find and correct the 8 errors. Write the code for each.

Dr Jason Lai practiced medicine in a public hospital, he left that job in 2023 to follow a lifelong dream.

He earned over a hundred thousand dollars a month and life was secure, every morning he woke up feeling empty.

He quit his job, sell his apartment and opened a small bakery in Mui Wo.

Bringing fresh bread to elderly residents who had walked an hour to the nearest shop.

The bakery was deliberately kept cheap so no one is left out.

Today, he deliver eighty loaves every morning and his parents felt very worrying about his future.

It is a example of courage for all of us.

PARAGRAPH WRITING REMINDERS

Content	• Name the person and state the change clearly. • Include specific details (job title, year, location, numbers). • Give the reason or motivation for the change. • Show impact on other people, not just the subject.
Organisation	• Start with who and what (the hook). • Build contrast or tension before the change. • Move from past (the decision) to present (the result). • End with a takeaway or significance for the reader.
Language	• Check every sentence has a subject and a finite verb. • Use parallel verb forms when listing actions (quit, sold, opened). • Keep verb tense consistent; mark time changes clearly. • Use ‘an’ before vowel sounds (an example, an honour).

PART 5: FIX YOUR OWN PARAGRAPH (10 MINUTES)

Step 1: Read your paragraph from Part 1 and circle the errors using the four codes. (5 minutes)

Step 2: Fix the errors in a second colour. Do not rewrite the whole paragraph. (5 minutes)

Step 3: Check with a partner. Did you miss any errors?

PART 6: ERROR TALLY

S (sentence boundary)
V (verb)
W (word form)
N (noun/article)
Total

PART 7: TRANSFER WRITE (3 MINUTES)

Write the next section: ‘The First Day at the Bakery’ (approx. 40 words).

Do not stop to correct. Write first, fix later.

PART 8: PEER PROOFREAD (4 MINUTES)

Swap your transfer-write paragraph with a partner.

Circle any errors you find and write the code at the bottom.

Sign your name on your partner's sheet.
